2016 Memorial Day Ceremony This Saturday

(LANSING) – The City of Lansing Memorial Day Committee today reminded city residents that the 2016 Memorial Day Ceremony is scheduled for this Saturday, May 28, 2016 at the Little Arlington section of Evergreen Cemetery, located at 2600 East Mount Hope in Lansing.

The ceremony will begin at 12:00 p.m. with a ceremonial procession honoring the men and women of America's armed forces who made the ultimate sacrifice in service to the nation. The keynote speaker for this year's event is James W. Butler, III, a decorated veteran of the Vietnam War. Opening remarks will be given by Mayor Virg Bernero.

Limited seating will be provided but the public is also invited to bring lawn chairs if so desired.

For more information, site maps, or general questions, please contact the City of Lansing Memorial Day Committee Secretary, Carol Munroe, at 517-483-4276 Monday thru Friday between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. or email carol.munroe@lansingmi.gov.
